The information conveyed in the following telegram will be cheering news to the hundreds of people who travel on the Utan & Northern. The new time table is a little more convenient for the public than that adopted in November, which has been so earnestly denounced by people living along the line of the road. Mr. Parker and Superintendent Ressigie have both interested themselves in the matter of overcoming the difficulty and the public will be grate-ful to these gentlemen, now that their efforts have been more or less successful. The following came from Mr. Parker, late last night:

FROM THE ORIENT.

bell flome Again.

Yesterday morning's 11 10 Utah Central express brought into town two Turner plead guilty to the charge of young gentlemen whom the community vagrancy and was sentenced to thirty will be heartily gl d to welcome home. These gents are Elders J. M. Tanner. of Provo, and Robert Campbell, of Logan. It was unders ood that they $20 for his appearance. As he failed to would arrive several days earner, but appear, the amount was for eited. owing to a misunderstanding with reference to trains, they were detained at Kansas City. At the time of their arrival at the depot, they were greeted by a number of friends, and it was gratiying to note that they are looking ex tremely well, physically. Of the labors of these two gentlemen full reports can not to be given, but as a great many of the readers of l'Hz Hznald are deeply interested in the work of elders abroad, we shall briefly summarize: Elder Tanner's mission covers a per-

Eder Tanner's mission covers a period of three years and a hif, during which time he visited the greater part of Continental Europe, going first to Pails and other parts of France, and from thence to Berlin, switzerland etc.
During his stay at Berlin—whom lasted about a year—he avail of himself of the opportunity of more fully mastering the German language, as his visit to France oat already been beneficial in a linguistcal sense. After a labor of one vest in teal sense. After a labor of one year in the Swiss and German missions, Eder Tanner's labors took a newer and somewhat novel turn. The Gospel mission was to be more fully opened in Constantinople, and he was sent thitter to second and complement the efforts of Elifer Sporie. The work here, con idening a variety phases and possible on the start of the second its varied phases and peculi archaracter, has been eminently successful. After pending about thirteen months within the confines of Constantinople and vicinity, making occasional visits to the historic o d cities of Greece, he made a tour through the Holy; and to Jerusalem. Finding a spirit of inquiry here and in various other parts of Palestine, he was called to make a second visit to the land which has been consecrated and endeared by the life and service of and endeared by the life and service of the Saviora d His worthy disciples. On this second trip he was accompanied by Elder F. M. Lyman, mnior. And the work in the Orient may now be salt to be fairly recommenced. Returning nome, Elder Tanner again visited Paris; but before county there he were to but before going there, he went to Rome and other Italian and Spanish cities. At Liverpoot, Eogland, he was joined by Elder Campbell, and the two ourneyed across the ocean and contined together

Mr. Tanner left for his home in Provo ast evening. Elder Robert Campbell, ex-mayor of Logan, left for Liverpool in August, 1885, and labored in the business office of it's mission there, glider Campbell has, during the past few months, vis-ited a number of conferences, and states hat the elders, as a rule, were full of hat the eiders, as a rule, were full of zeal and in good spirits, whil-the condition of the mission is very satisfactory. In London the notorious Jorman has been speaking against the "Mormons," but his efforts have really resulted in good, as they aroused an interest in the people, and led them to investigate for themselves. After visiting relatives in the city for a few cays, Elder Campbell will return to his home in Loyan
